

Santa Fe Unitarian Universalist Women's Fellowship (UUWF)

UUWF is a community of women that seeks to enrich the lives of its members as well as the lives of the women and children of Santa Fe. UUWF is a volunteer organization that donates the proceeds from its programs to local Santa Fe charities.

As a place for women to meet other Santa Fe women, UUWF holds monthly luncheons from September through May featuring a speaker on various topics ranging from authors to travel and social justice topics and local culture and history. Speakers are generally from Santa Fe and our surrounding New Mexico community. UUWF also sponsors a monthly book group and hosts an annual retreat, which is a special time for building friendships and self-exploration. UUWF activities are open to any woman in the community, and it's not necessary to be a UUWF member or a member of UU Santa Fe to participate.

During these times of social distancing, monthly UUWF luncheon presentations have been cancelled. For more information about UUWF and to receive our emails about upcoming events when they restart, email us at uuwfsantafe@gmail.com.

Men's Odyssey (a UU Santa Fe Men's Friendship Group)

An odyssey is a long wondering or voyage usually marked by many changes of fortune; an intellectual or spiritual quest. Open to any man in the community, Men's Odyssey meets at 7 pm in the church library every first and third Tuesday of the month to discuss matters of mutual interest. In the fall there is a weekend retreat which participants have greatly enjoyed. The group considers service to UU Santa Fe to be an important part of its activities and has, for example, assisted at weddings and memorial services, as well as UU Santa Fe fundraisers. Men's Odyssey meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month at 7 pm. For more information email Rod Morgan at morgansf@newmexico.com.

UU Santa Fe Humanists

Welcoming Language for a Humanist UU Congregation. We strive to be a welcoming and warm community. We embrace all who come with open minds and kind hearts. We value the richness which diversity brings to our Fellowship, including differences in age, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, physical and mental capacities and political outlooks. Our community includes people from various religious and secular traditions - people who believe in a deity of some description, people who don't, and people who simply embrace mystery. We invite you to add your unique outlooks and skills to our welcoming congregation!

UU Santa Fe Freethinkers meet the third Sunday of each month at 8:30 am in Fellowship Hall. We have announcements of this in the Sunday emailed Order of Service and the UU Santa Fe Weekly e-newsletter and Meetup (<https://www.meetup.com/freethinkersforum>).
